REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT

Anderson School District One continues to live up to its motto: A Tradition of Excellence. The district has continued to maintain its status of being among the best in the state. Our district report card of "Good" ranks Anderson One among the best in the state. Test scores on all state assessments remain highly competitive with other districts in the state.

After a successful referendum in the previous school year, we are moving forward with our building program, which includes a new high school and additions and renovations to eleven of the thirteen schools in Anderson One. All projects are still on schedule for completion before July 2011.

It is a pleasure to serve as Superintendent of Anderson School District One and to serve with an outstanding Board of Trustees. We have the finest administrators, teachers, staff members, parents, and students in any district in the state. The success of our district is due to everyone's commitment to excellence.

Wayne Fowler, Superintendent
Fred Alexander, Board of Trustee Chairman
